DANTZICK, January 18.

ACCORDING to some unquestionable Advices just received, most of the Ditches that are between Bender and Balta, are filled up with the dead Bodies of the Ruſſian Soldiers, who were either killed, or died of the Diſorders which prevailed among them; the Number of them is ſaid to amount to Twenty Thouſand.

LONDON,

Jan. 23. It is ſaid that a noble Duke has, within theſe few Days, expreſſed himſelf to a great Perſonage in theſe Words; "Without Firmneſs this Nation is undone."

Letters from a neighbouring Kingdom inform, that the late Proceedings in the national Aſſembly there have given ſuch univerſal Diſcontent, that ſeveral of the Senators, who diſtinguiſhed themſelves on the unpopular Side of the Queſtion, are afraid to be ſeen in the Streets, and have been obliged to ſend to the Barracks for Parties of Soldiers to protect them from the Inſults of the Mob, when they are under a neceſſity of attending the public Buſineſs.

We are informed that the Court of Vienna have certified to the Imperial Miniſters at foreign Courts, that they intend to take no Part in the preſent War between the Turks and the Ruſſians.

A Writer in favour of Adminiſtration, ſays, "The D—e of G———n has reſigned his Place, yet he is, and will continue to be, the acting Miniſter. His Conduct is founded upon a political and honourable Principle; and the good of this Country is ſtill his Object." He adds, "Lord North has Abilities, Reſolution, Patriotiſm, and the Honour worthy of a Leader."

This Morning an Expreſs was ſent off from the Earl of Hillſborough's Office in Whitehall, for Plymouth, to be forwarded immediately to New-York.

Feb. 3. We are told that the Number of Seamen to be employed for the Service of the preſent Year is to be 16,000, including Marines, which is the ſame Number employed for the preceding Year; this ſhews obviouſly, that there are no Thoughts of an immediate War, as has been propagated to deceive the Public.

We are informed that ſome very intereſting Diſpatches were received Yeſterday from Governor Trelawny, of Jamaica.

Feb. 6. A Letter from Copenhagen, dated January 16, ſays, "We are aſſured, that if, during the Winter, Peace ſhould not be eſtabliſhed between this Nation and the Algerines, the King will ſend next Spring into the Mediterranean, a much more conſiderable Squadron than was at firſt intended."

Feb. 8. Notwithſtanding the many Inſinuations in Print, that a noble D—, near Charing-Croſs, will ſoon again join the M———y, we are aſſured the whole is entirely Groundleſs, as that N———n has both publicly and privately declared his Abhorrence of ſuch deſperate Meaſures, which the M—— have lately purſued.

It is ſaid, that the Conduct hitherto of a new S——r in a certain Aſſembly, has done great Honour to their Choice, as he has particularly carried ſtrict Uprightneſs to both Parties.

Some Letters from Liſbon mention, that Don Mello de Caſtro, the new Secretary of State, has lately taken ſome Pains to perſuade his moſt faithful Majeſty, that the true Intereſt of Portugal, with Regard both to Matters of Policy and Commerce, will be to ſecure the Friendſhip of Great-Britain.

It was this Morning reported, that Advice is received, that the Spaniſh Court have given Orders for the Ruſſian Men of War to be denied Entrance into any of his Catholic Majeſty's Ports, within or without the Straits of Gibraltar.

It is ſaid, that many noble Lords in the Minority have repeatedly declared, that they will never agree to any Propoſals for a Coalition, without a previous Aſſurance is made, that the Rights of Election and Repreſentation ſhall be ſecured to the People.

A witty Earl, at certain late Debates, and at ſo late an Hour, looking round, and ſeeing all the Candles near extinguiſhed, ſaid, "I'll retire, for I find all will end in Smoke."

Feb. 10. We are informed, that a conciliating Plan will ſhortly be propoſed by L—d N——h, which, if it ſhould take Effect, will reflect immortal Honour on the Character of that Nobleman.

The Ceſſions made to France by the Houſe of Auſtria in the Low Countries, in the late Barrier Treaty, have greatly and juſtly alarmed the States-General. In Conſequence of ſeveral Deliberations, their Miniſters at Paris and Vienna have in Vain remonſtrated, and we are aſſured, that they are recalled from thoſe Courts. The States-General have put their Navy upon a reſpectable Footing, and are now recruiting all their Regiments, as they are reſolved no longer to be a mere Cypher in the political Syſtem of Europe.

We are aſſured a Squadron of Twelve Men of War have ſailed from Toulon, in Queſt of the Ruſſian Fleet in the Mediterranean; and an Account of an Engagement between them is hourly expected.

We have the Pleaſure to aſſure our Readers, that a Coalition is now upon the Carpet, and that it will be declared in a few Days. For which Reaſon, certain Debates have by Agreement been put off, 'til this Meaſure is brought to an Iſſue, which has been retarded by the Marquis of Rockingham's Indiſpoſition.

The Miniſtry have received undoubted Advice of ſome dangerous Deſigns, hatching by the Spaniſh Court, againſt his Majeſty's Province of Weſt-Florida.

Feb. 13. Some ſecret and very important Diſpatches, it is ſaid, are received from the Spaniſh Court.

Bets are Seven to Two, that the Spaniards attack Jamaica before the 1ſt of June.

There are no leſs than 32 Sail of the Line at the Havannah. The Frigates belonging to Commodore Byron's Squadron have received Orders to fit out and repair expeditiouſly to Jamaica.

Letters from Conſtantinople adviſe, that the Porte had given Orders for 30,000 Men to be immediately embarked at the neareſt Ports, to garriſon the ſeveral Greek Iſlands.

They write from Hamburgh, that the Court of Peterſburgh ſeem ſomewhat alarmed for the Fate of the Ruſſian Squadron, ſhould it be attacked by the French and Spaniſh Fleets, which had occaſioned the holding divers Councils; at the breaking up of which Couriers were diſpatched to the different Northern Courts in Alliance with her Majeſty.

They write from Gibraltar, that Three French Men of War of the Line had for ſome Days been cruiſing in the Gutt, that they had been twice in the Bay, and their Officers affected to talk myſteriouſly concerning the Object of their Expedition.

Feb. 15. There was the fulleſt Houſe of Commons on Monday Night, that has been known for ſeveral Years paſt, 451 Members being preſent; the Majority increaſed, and the Minority continued partly the ſame as upon former Diviſions.

An extraordinary Summons of a very ſpirited Nature from the M———y to their Friends and Dependants, may account, in ſome Meaſure, for the unexpected Advance in their Numbers on a late Occaſion.

A Correſpondent informs us, that 16 belonging to the leſſer Number on the above Occaſion, were abſent by Illneſs and previous Engagements; ſo that it may be juſtly ſaid, the M-n-r-ty is certainly at leaſt 206.

Lord N—th publicly declared on Monday Night, that "nothing but his S————n's Will ſhould ever make him quit his Poſt, as he conſidered the preſent Opponents to Admin————n as ſo many Locuſts, who being driven from their intended Ravages, in their Flight make a tremendous Noiſe, that might frighten

One of the Noblemen ſummoned to Court, to be preſent on the Delivery of the City Remonſtrance, was aſking another Nobleman what they were ſent for there; to which he replied, "Why to be ſure, my Lord, to have a Sight of the horned Cattle." "Nay, my Lord, (returned the other) if I may judge of ſome of our Fraternity whom I ſee amongſt us (looking earneſtly at a noble Duke) I ſhould rather imagine the Citizens came here for that Purpoſe.

March 21. We are informed, that if any more Notice ſhould be taken of Lord Chatham's Words in the Houſe of Peers, reſpecting the Diſmiſſion of the late Lord Chancellor (Camden) that thoſe Two Noblemen have ſo concerted Matters as to produce Proofs of the Truth of his Aſſertion.

It is reported, that in a Conference his Majeſty had lately with Lord Chatham, that Nobleman told him, that he ſhould think himſelf obliged at all Times to ſtand up in Defence of his M———'s juſt Rights; but [illegible] Paper was, on Monday, cenſured by a very high Aſſembly.

The following is an Extract of a Letter from a Paſſenger on board the Sally Brig, who, with the Captain, Mate, and two Boys, are now confined at the Groyne, under Pretence that they had been taking a Plan of the Harbour and Fortification of Vigo in Spain.

Corunna, Dec. 18, 1769.

"This comes to acquaint you, that after a long and troubleſome Journey of eight Days (from Vigo) we got here, and are impriſoned in an Iſland ſeparate from the Town, and have not ſpoke to the Conſul General, nor the Vice Conſul, nor any other Perſon; neither are they ſuffered to come and ſee us. We came here very wet, and were put in Priſon in that Condition; we had nothing to lie on but a hard Floor for three or four Days, and now have a Handful of Straw, which is as dear as Feathers in England. Theſe are the Hardſhips which we now undergo, and what we ſhall ſuffer more God only knows! I know not. My Service to the Conſul at Vigo. When you write to me deſire the Advices from Paris, dated March 25, import, "That ſome Perſons belonging to Rochelle and St. Malo, have requeſted of the King Two Ships, in order to trade to India; and his Majeſty, willing to encourage Commerce and Navigation, had granted them Two Veſſels, the Briſſon and Penthievre, which were among the Number of thoſe that the India Company had ceded to him.

It is ſaid that the Middleſex Remonſtrance is intended to be preſented on Friday next.

The Military Gentlemen at Chatham, are indefatigable in their Endeavours to prevent a Remonſtrance from the County of Kent.

Yeſterday a grand Entertainment was given by the Lord Mayor, at the Manſion-Houſe, at which were preſent, a great Number of the Nobility and Gentry of Considerable Bets are laid at the West-End of the Town, that the Duke of Portland, Lord Camden, the Marquis of Rockingham, and Lord Chatham, will be at the Head of the Administration before the Month of April next.

Two Noblemen, who have been hitherto thought strongly attached to Administration, are expected to join the Minority on the next Division.

The French Minister at the Court of Berlin, and the Prussian Minister at Paris, are gone to their respective Homes, and it is thought they will not return, as their royal Masters seem to be of Opinion, that, according to the modern System, their respective Interests are of such a Nature, as not to make it necessary to keep a Minister at a great Expence at each Court.

Letters from Dantzick say, that a Second Fleet of 12 Ships of the Line is fitting out, with the utmost Expedition, in Russia, the Command of which is to be given to Admiral Kosinnin.

Feb. 17. Accounts from Vienna declare, that Advice had been received from Constantinople, that the Grand Signior will certainly put himself at the Head of his Troops, early in the Spring, and that Two of the most respectable Powers in Europe, have engaged to furnish him with Twenty Ships of the Line, in case the Russians should commence Hostilities in the Mediterranean.

Authentic Advices from Venice say, from a Number of concurring Circumstances, it is imagined the Republic will be engaged in the present War between Russia and the Ottoman Porte.

Accounts from Cadiz, Ferrol, and Carthagena, mention, that Orders have been sent from the Court of Madrid, to fit out all the Men of War in those Harbours, with the utmost Expedition, and that the like Instructions had been dispatched to Corunna, Barcelona, and Malaga.

A Gentleman who has lately visited most of the Seaports of Spain, says, that their Marine is in a very poor Condition, and that it will take them a considerable Time to equip a Fleet of any Consequence.

Letters from Madrid, dated Jan. 23, say, "Our Court is astonished to see it in many foreign Papers strongly asserted, that most of the Ports in this Monarchy are making Preparations for War; it is very foreign from the Truth, which is, that they are building a few new Vessels, and repairing those that wanted it, and arranging some other Things, only with a View of putting the Navy on a good Footing."

Letters from the Frontiers of Poland, dated Jan. 28, say, "On the 23d Instant the Confederates attacked Col. Drewitz near Dobra, but he received them in such a Manner, that they lost all their Infantry and Artillery. It is said that the Russians were only 6000 Men, and the Confederates between 7 and 8000. This is the first Time, and very likely the last, that the Confederates will dare to attack the Russians, and give them Battle according to the Rules of War.

It is said, that an Account of the Number of Men and Shipping from England and Scotland, that were employed last Season in the Newfoundland Fishery, has been laid before a great Assembly.

They write from Paris, that a Body of 50,000 French Troops have been ordered to be formed early in the Spring, but the Object of this Force remains at present a profound Secret.

The learned Serjeant Glynn, Knight of the Shire for the County of Middlesex, made a most spirited and elegant Speech, in a certain Assembly on Monday Night last, in defence of the glorious Cause of Liberty, which lasted for Three Hours and Seventeen Minutes.

L—— N——th declared last Week, that "All he had came unasked, quite freely and spontaneously to him;" on which Mr. E——nd B——ke compared him to an Oyster, which lay still gaping for the Tide, ready to receive it, whether it came from the East, West, North, or South, and taking it in, however muddy, foul, and dirty. Another Member added, that "if L—— N——th was the Oyster itself, J—m—h D—s—n and J—k—n were the Two Shells."

Feb. 18. The Evening before the E—l of C———m went out of Town, sitting in Company with a select Party, he declared his Intention of going into the Country next Day, as the Affair, he said, "Was all over." Some Friends of his interposing, and begging his Lordship would wait a few Days longer, he replied in a great Passion, "Zounds, if it was possible Truth or Justice could prevail by their own Force, I would stay Years in Town, to do my Country all t Service in my Power; but when there is a Majorit for G——t on every Question, all further Opposition would be as ridiculous as for a poor Man to conte with a rich one, when the Dispute was alone to be d termined by the length of their Purses."

Letters from Hamburgh mention, that the Court o Petersburgh lately received some Advices, which ha determined the Empress to demand a categorica Answer from the Court of Versailles, whether Franc intends to take any Part in the present War between the Turks and Russians?

They write from Constantinople, that the People there are very apprehensive the Court of Vienna will soon join the Russians; and they say if that should happen, the Downfall of the Ottoman Empire will be at no great Distance.

Letters from Cadiz mention, that a Fleet of Spanish Men of War is now fitting out there, said to be intended for a secret Expedition.

We are assured, that when Lord Camden delivered up the Seals to a certain great Personage, a long Conversation ensued, in the Course of which, the latter frequently expressed great concern at the present unhappy Divisions, and repeatedly mentioned his Anxiety to put a Period to them as soon as possible.

Feb. 20. Notwithstanding the Reasons assigned for putting Jamaica under martial Laws, the Intelligent, from many concurring Circumstances of the Orders given for the Commissioners of the Victualling-Office to make Preparations to victual a Fleet, the Orders from the Admiralty to fit out several capital Ships, and the Report of 2000 Stand of Small-Arms now sending from the Tower to the said Island, conclude that a War is not very distant.

The French Court, in less than a Fortnight, will have Eight Ships of the Line, Four Ships of 50 Guns, Four small Frigates, and Two Bombketches, ready to put to Sea. For this Purpose, a very great Number of Naval Artificers were a few Days ago sent from Brest to Toulon, in which Place they now are.

Last Week, Beating Orders were issued from the Board of Admiralty, to enlist Recruits to fill up the Vacancies in the Three Divisions of Marines on the Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Chatham Divisions.

The Report from the Committee appointed to examine into the State of the Nation, which was to have been received last Friday in a certain H——e, was put off 'til this Day, a previous Question having arisen, which took up the Deliberation of that Assembly 'til near Ten at Night.

Letters from Vienna, dated January 27, say, "Letters from Hermanstad advise, that the Beginning of this Month the Turks fell upon Buckarest, the Capital of Valachia, and drove the Russians from thence; some Days after the Russians returned, drove away the Turks again, and pursued them a great Way. Many of the Inhabitants of that Province have abandoned their Houses, and Numbers of them have taken Refuge in Transylvania."

Immediately after the Earl of Hillsborough's last Conference with a great Personage, his Lordship went to Judge Bathurst, and we are assured from good Authority, strongly solicited him to accept the Seals.

A Report was last Night current at the Smyrna and Cocoa-Tree, that a French and Russian Man of War had met near the Straits of Dardanelle, and on the former's refusing to give the Precedence to the latter, they came to an Engagement, in which the Russian was worsted. This it is supposed will cause an immediate Rupture between the Two Nations.

Letters from Warsaw, dated January 27, say, "Yesterday an Express arrived with Advice, that a Body of Confederates have taken at Sidleo, an Estate belonging to Prince Czartorowski, Grand Chancellor of Lithuania, Count Grabowski, late Marshal of the Confederacy of the Dissidents, together with his Brother, Chief of the Lithuanian Horse-Guards, both Majors-General in the Army of this Grand Dutchy, and Knights of the Order of St. Alexander in Russia. These, Two Officers, lived retired upon that Estate, without any Apprehensions of being molested by the Confederates. After plundering and using them very ill, they were put in a Waggon, and carried away, but it is not known whither. This Affair makes a great Noise, and it is not doubted but the Russian Ambassador will insist upon these Noblemen being set at Liberty.

Feb. 22. It is asserted, that Two very distinguished Noblemen are become indefatigable in their Endeavours to effect a happy Termination of the Differences now subsisting between England and her Colonies.

It is thought that about Twenty Ships, fully laden, will leave the Thames, in one Week after the repeal of the American Acts, and that great Numbers more will depart from different Ports in this Kingdom, before they have been repealed one Month.

An Evening Paper says, "It was strongly reported Yesterday Morning at Whitehall, that Dispatches of a very serious Nature had been received from our Ambassador at Madrid, relative to a Squadron of Spanish Men of War, with several Regiments on board, that had sailed to the West-Indies, designed, as it was believed, against Jamaica.—And we are assured, that Orders have been sent to Portsmouth for fitting out immediately a Squadron of Observation for the West-Indies."

Orders are given for Fifty Tuns of new Half-Pence to be struck at the Tower for the Use of the American Colonies, pursuant to the Petition of the Province of Virginia, and other Settlements, as lately transmitted to the Secretary of State for the Colonies.

We are now informed, that a great Personage's Orders to one of his Servants, at a late Conference, relating to America, was, Let the Dignity of Government be supported with Firmness, but Moderation; and for past Offences, let Justice give Place to Mercy.

We are credibly informed, that Edward Thurloe, Esq; King's Council, is appointed his Majesty's Solicitor-General, in the room of John Dunning, Esq; who has resigned.

The Province of South-Carolina having set the patriotic Example, the Society of the Bill of Rights are in daily Expectation of some considerable Subscriptions from America, in Consequence of their Circular Letters, which were sent some Time ago.

Feb. 23. It is now reported, that Sir Jeffery Amherst, will be appointed Governor of New-York, and succeed to the supreme Command of American Land Forces, in the Room of General Gage.

It is said, those of the Livery, whose Situation in Life render them sufficiently independent to act agreeable to their own Consciences, are determined to go up to St. J——'s in their Livery Gowns.

Feb. 24. Accounts from Ireland say, that a great Number of Linen Manufacturers in the North of that Kingdom, have left their Country, and gone to settle in North-America.

It is now said, that if there is a Repeal of the Acts, laying Duties on Paper and Glass in America, there will be inserted a Clause to restrain them from erecting Paper-Mills, or Glass-Houses, of any Kind whatever.

N E W-Y O R K, April 26.

Extract of a Letter from London, dated in January.

"There has been lately many warm Debates in the House of Commons against the Court, and do push the Ministry very hard for their unconstitutional Measures. The general Subject of the Debates, was on the Expulsion of Mr. Wilkes, which had occasioned such Commotions in the Kingdom, and bitter Invectives against the Ministry.—Col. Barre, pointing to Lord North, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and to the Treasury Bench, said, "These are the Men who have alienated the Minds and Affections of the People from the best of Kings; a King who ascended the Throne more beloved than any of his Predecessors:" And added, "Does it not make you tremble when I tell you, there are Thirteen Millions of Subjects, now in a flaming Fever, from the Wounds you have given the Constitution?" Lord Bottetourt's Speech was attacked by Barry and Burke, and most strongly ridiculed; the Reason of introducing it was, to show the Impropriety of a Minister's Promise to repeal any Act before he had consulted Parliament. Beckford, Burke, Barre, and many others of the Minority, spoke strongly in Favour of America; condemned the Treatment of it from the Beginning, and strongly urged the giving it a proper Constitution. But the Chancellor of the Exchequer in answer to them, took no Notice of the Proposition; he however observed, that the Act laying Duties on the British Manufactures, was the most Anti-commercial that ever was contrived.——Lord Barrington, who is in Place, and has always been remarkable to go with every Administration, in endeavouring to justify his Conduct, threw out, that for his Part, he had served Government for 25 Years; Mr. Burke, in Reply, was very severe upon him, and said to this Purpose: "'Tis not to the Veteran I address myself, nor to him hackneyed in the Ways of Government, 'tis to you young Men, the rising Hopes of your Country! Let me advise you not to tread in the Steps of those who have brought this Confusion on their Country——Should there be any among you base enough to follow their Example, may he die the Death of the worst Malefactor; may he suffer all the Pains and Tortures that have been inflicted on those who have paid their forfeit Lives to their Country; may he, O for a noble Curse! May he be the Tool of Government for 25 Years, the common Sewer of every Administration."

WILLIAMSBURG, April 26.

By an Express just arrived from Hampton, we are assured with Certainty, that the Revenue-Acts are all repealed, the Tea-Act only excepted.

ANNAPOLIS, May 10.

Extract of a Letter from a House in London to their Correspondent in Maryland, dated March 5, 1770.

"This is the Day fixed in the House of Commons to consider of the Repeal of the Revenue-Acts; we shall keep our Letters open as long as we can, to let you know our Fate; at present we do not expect a Repeal of the Tea-Act."

To which was subjoin'd the following Paragraph, March 6.

"Late last Night the House of Commons came to the Resolution to repeal the Duties on Paper, Glass, and Painters Colours, but the Duty on Tea is to remain with the Preamble to the Revenue-Bill.——The Number against the Repeal of the Tea-Duty was 204, for the Repeal 142, the Majority against the Repeal 62, so that all our Expectations of a general Trade are over for this Year, and the Ministry seem firm in their Resolutions."

April 29, 1770.

SOME Time ago importunately prevailed on Messieurs Mordicai Jacob, Robert Tyler, Benjamin Hall, Abraham Woodward, and Edward Crabb, to purchase for me, the Lots and Houses where Mr. Jeremiah Crabb now lives, in Queen-Anne Town, in Prince-George's County, with an Intent at that Time, to keep a Public-House there; but having lately had very considerable Offers for my Bargain, am now disposed to part with them, and shall sell them to the highest Bidder on Wednesday, the 30th Day of May next. The Sale to be at the Subscriber's, living near the said Premises—The Improvements are, viz. a Dwelling-House, with Four Rooms on a Floor, a Cellar under the same, a Kitchen, Meat-House, Milk-House, a large convenient Stable, with a very fine large Garden paled in, a Store-House which at this Time Rents for £. 12 per Annum, a large Granary with Two Rooms on a Floor, quite new, with a convenient Apparatus for setting the Grain into the Vessels. The whole Improvements are in good Repair, and there cannot be a more convenient Place for a Tavern in the Province.

THOMAS ROSE.

N. B. The House will be set up separate or all together, as may be most suitable to those that choose to buy, and the above Gentlemen will convey to any Purchaser.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE MARYLAND GAZETTE.

ANNAPOLIS, MAY 10, 1770.

TO BE SOLD,

A LIKELY young Negro Man, about Twenty-three Years of Age, has worked at the Blackſmiths Buſineſs about 9 or 10 Years, is a good Tradeſman, very active, ſupple, and an orderly well behaved Fellow, ſold for no Fault, only that his Maſter declines the Buſineſs. Enquire of the Printers.

THE Manufacturer of TOBACCO and SNUFF, at Bladenſburg, once more addreſſes the Public, but particularly the Gentlemen Merchants, Factors, &c. acquainting them, that he is deſirous to furniſh them with Snuff, in the Wholeſale Way, and to prevent Diſappointments, he requeſts them to ſend their Orders to him as ſoon as poſſible, for it is highly probable he may enter into ſuch Engagements, as will effectually hinder his ſupplying them with the Quantities they may want.

It may not be improper to acquaint thoſe Ladies and Gentlemen who live remote from the Manufactory and are deſirous of becoming Cuſtomers, that he makes plain Scotch, Rappee, Spaniſh, and high Toaſt Snuff, and many Sorts of thoſe different Kinds.

In theſe Times of Oppreſſion, when Patriotiſm is the Theme of every Lover of his Country, it is hoped that the Want of Bottles will be no Obſtacle to the Sale of his Snuff, which he purpoſes to pack up in Country made Pots, when his preſent Stock of Bottles is exhauſted.

He has the Pleaſure to acknowledge himſelf much obliged for the Favours received from his good old Cuſtomers, and is anxious to merit a Continuance of their Correſpondence with,

Their very humble Servant,

RICHARD THOMPSON.
